

Option to receive Health Partners Annual Report

The Health Partners Annual Report highlights our successes, including financial performance and demonstrations of how we continue to deliver choice, access and convenience in health care to our members.

The Health Partners Annual Report will be made available to members, free of charge, by the following options:

- An electronic version of the report can be emailed to members or downloaded from our website at healthpartners.com.au
- A printed version of the report can be mailed to members.

If you would like to receive a copy of the Health Partners Annual Report each year (by email or mail), simply complete and return this form. In any event, you will continue to be sent Notices of Meetings from Health Partners.
